Ronnie Breingan:

Scottish Banknotes

Maybole Historical Society member Ronnie Breingan is a retired banker and past President of the Glasgow and West of Scotland Numismatic Society.

His talk is about the history of the Scottish banks from 1695 in relation to the notes issued. Scottish notes have always been recognized for their interesting and colourful designs. More recently the banks have been noted for their more colourful behaviour. But there is nothing new in that. Mr Breingan will be looking at past failures (and successes) through the years.

Historic Scotland backs one-day Conference for Cluny 2010

We are delighted to announce that Historic Scotland are giving financial backing to the conference mentioned in the last newsletter. It will take place in Paisley Town Hall on Saturday, 15th May, 2010 as part of Scotland's Cluny 2010 celebrations. The Joint Organising Committee also gratefully acknowledge a £250 donation towards the conference by Maybole Historical Society.
