

FUNDRAISING

All volunteers have to raise £3,550 before going overseas. Shown below is a breakdown of what this covers.

Project Trust is an educational charity, sending school leavers on their year out to work voluntarily in about 24 countries. The aim of the charity is to provide the volunteer with an educational experience through living and working with people in communities very different from those where they've grown up. Project Trust stands out from other gap year companies because;

- All volunteers attend a 4-day selection course before committing to the charity.
- Before departure volunteers receive training & briefing.
- On their return they attend a debriefing weekend.
- Extensive support is provided for all volunteers whilst overseas.

How I'm going to meet my target;

- A sponsored PARACHUTE JUMP on 27th October 2002.
- A GRAND CEILIDH in Ayr Town Hall, 9th November 2002.
- Writing to organisations such as yourselves to request financial support.
- Ideas for more fundraising events in 2003 include a concert, coffee morning, and car washes.

About Peru;

- Population of around 23 million.
- Official language – Spanish.
- Landscape – extremely diverse, ranging from coastline to mountains, with desert and rainforest to be found in between!
- Culture – also very mixed, influenced by ancient Andean traditions and ideas brought by the Spanish.
- Quality of life – high in the wealthy region of the capital, but poor in the mountainous regions, which lack basic services, e.g. medical care and education.

My Project;

- Near the city of Cuzco, in the mountains.
- Working in an orphanage.
- Providing general care for the children.
- Teaching music and art, and organising activities.
- Helping the other carers to improve their English, whilst improving my Spanish!
